William Henry Click II

We are constantly looking for descendants of pioneers that were buried in the Lone Pine cemetery and occasionally we hit the jackpot. This photo shows the Click Family after installing a new headstone on the grave of their ancestor, William Click II. Friends of Lone Pine Cemetery have been working on the restoration of the cemetery for over ten years and this is what makes all our work worthwhile!

Thank you Click Family, for honoring your pioneer ancestor.

The days work plans were to meet with the HOPE students from The Upper Columbia Academy in Spangle WA at 12:00 and work until 4:00 pm cutting and stacking brush for burning at a later date.

The Work Day began as planned at 12:00N in spite of a light rain that lasted throughout the day, and as usual the HOPE group arrived on time and as usual done a terrific amount of work in the time allotted them. Refreshments were served to the students at the end of the work day.

The Spring meeting and work day is planned for some time in April 2017.

Congratulations to Rod & Sue Smith Of Kettle Falls WA on celebrating their 50th Wedding anniversary on Saturday October 15th. They are charter members of the Friends of Lone Pine Cemetery.
